TOTAL POSSIBLE POINTS 250

You will present your printed paper portfolio in an “interview” setting where the guest critics will be your audience on the other side of the interview desk.

You will be graded on the portfolio quality in the following areas:

- Organization & structure - Does the portfolio have an easy-to-read format? Is the organization clear?
- Document design - Is the layout and arrangement of text & images attractive and appropriate?
- Content - Does the portfolio content show mastery of the subject material?
- Range & Variety of skills represented – Are a variety of skills represented? Can they be found via labels or context statements?
- Consistency/Theme - Does the portfolio have a consistent design? Does it work well for the content?
- Visual / Graphic elements - Are images clear & sharp in quality? Are the visual elements effective and appropriate?

You will be graded on the presentation in the following areas:

- Oral & Organizational clarity - Did you communicate the content clearly and effectively?
- Body Language - Did you communicate professionally & confidently?

You will each have 20 minutes to present your portfolio. The order of presentations will be randomly selected.

You will leave the printed portfolio with your instructor for grading. They will be returned the last day of class.
